Provenance:
This collection was transferred to Mercy Heritage Center from the former Detroit Regional Community Archives in Farmington Hills, Michigan in 2013.

History:
The former Province/Regional Community of Detroit was originally five separate foundations in Michigan, Iowa, Argentina and Indiana.

Sisters of Mercy from Ireland, led by Mother Mary Evangelista Fitzpatrick, established a foundation in Argentina in 1856.

The Independence, Iowa/Fort Dodge community was established in 1869 by Mother Mary Francis Monholland.
In 1873, Mother Mary Joseph Lynch arrived in Grand Rapids, Michigan from Brooklyn, NY to open an academy. The sisters moved to Big Rapids in 1878 but moved their motherhouse back to Grand Rapids in 1914. In 1926 the community sent sisters to New Mexico.

The Dubuque, Iowa, community was founded 1879 with Mother Mary Agatha Murphy as first Superior. The Dubuque community (which merged with the Independence, Iowa community in 1922) joined the Union of the Sisters of Mercy in the United States in August, 1929 as part of the Omaha Province. However, in August, 1930, the Mother General and Council decided to move the Dubuque community to the Cincinnati Province because Dubuque had so many missions (7) in Michigan and the Michigan communities belonged to the Cincinnati Province.

In 1923, Sisters M. Magdalen Bennett and Vincent McDermott came from Aurora, Illinois to establish a community in Indiana. In 1928, at the request of the bishop, sisters from Grand Rapids assumed responsibility for the ministries there.

When the Sisters of Mercy of the Union was formed in 1929, the Michigan, Iowa and Indiana communities were assigned to the Cincinnati Province until the creation of the Detroit Province in 1940. In 1962, the Argentina joined the Union and became part of the Detroit Province. In 1991, the Detroit Province joined the newly formed Institute of the Sisters of Mercy of the Americas as the Regional Community of Detroit. In 2008, the Regional Community of Detroit became part of the West Midwest Community. Argentina became part of the Caribbean, Central America and South America Community (CCASA).

Sisters from the Regional Community of Detroit have taught in approximately 89 parochial schools and established 36 hospitals.
